Claim or Claims

1. What I claim in my invention is to have the authority over production, manufacture, and marketing over any chambered lighter smoke accessory system.

2. What I claim in my invention is that no other manufacturer may produce or market the product, a chambered lighter smoke accessory system, without my written or expressed consent.